Dear Madam:

We reply to your email dated February 11, 2013 with regard to the attached news article entitled: "Alsons seeks equity partner for power projects" posted in Inquirer.net on February 11, 2013, which reported, among others, the following:

"MANILA, Philippines - The Alcantara-led Alsons Consolidated Resources, Inc. is considering Japan's Toyota Tsusho Corp., the trading company of the Toyota Group, as a possible equity partner for its planned $311-million coal-fired power plant in Zamboanga City.

"A lot of companies have been coming to us, wanting to become a partner in our projects and we have refused them all (including some conglomerates intending to enter into the power generation business). Alsons is considering equity partners and Toyota Tsusho is one of them." Luis R. Ymson, Jr., chief financial officer of Alsons Consolidated, said in an interview.

We confirm to all trading participants and the public that the statements made in the above-mentioned article are true and correct. The possible entry of partners in the Alsons projects will still undergo approval by the Alsons Board. We will apprise the Exchange and the investing public once these partnerships are finally approved by the Board.

We hope this clarifies the information contained in said article.

Very truly yours,

LUIS R. YMSON, JR.
